Just in time for “Winter Driving”

“The Skid Monster” (recently seen on KHQ News)

The “Skid Monster” is a vehicle control simulator, a speed control simulator, and a traction loss simulator. It’s an exciting, challenging an unforgettable teacher.

Drivers learn:

- * How vision keeps car control
- * How as little as 1 -2 mph of speed change can be the cause of a major skid.
- * To feel reduced grip between the road and tires, and where the envelope of traction exists.
- * Crash avoidance skills and reacting to secondary skids.
- * How to prevent, detect, and recover from adverse conditions.

New drivers, experienced drivers, young drivers, and seasoned drivers, the Skid Monster gives you the opportunity to practice correct behavioral techniques. The Skid Monster allows drivers to gain confidence while experiencing failure and success in a safe environment. This XTREME CONTROL encounter is for the entire family.

REQUIREMENTS

1. Participant must have a valid Instruction Permit or Drivers License.
2. Complete the Release, Waiver, and Indemnification form. (on back of parent letter)
3. One hour training, three students per hour. $30 per person. Available to B&B students and their families. Make payment in full by cash, check, or credit card to complete enrollment. Take payment with release to your teacher.
4. Training times will be available on designated weekends and school holidays. Call B&B office for times and dates of training.
5. Training is located at Spokane Fairgrounds. Take the south entrance on Havana Street, drive straight back until you see the gate opening with the Skid Monster sign on the right.
